

2023 Drainage School

Speaker Biography

Chad Coughenour Hancock County Surveyor

Chad Coughenour is a 1995 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science with a minor in Mathematics and Sociology. He started his career in drainage when he was hired as the Survey Crew Chief for the Hancock County Surveyor's Office in 1999. In 2001, he became a certified floodplain manager and was instrumental in helping Hancock County become a CRS Community. In January of 2023, he began his first term as the Hancock County Surveyor. Included in his duties are regulated drain maintenance, reviewing construction projects, being the floodplain manager of the county, and the MS4 coordinator for the county. He is also a member of the Indiana Association of Floodplain and Stormwater Management (INAFSM) and has served on the board since 2021 as the central regional director.

